BYLAWS
OF
DELRAY BEACH COMMUNITY LAND TRUST, INC.

ARTICLE I: NAME AND PURPOSE

1. Name. The name of this organization shall be Delray Beach Community Land Trust, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation."

2. Purpose. The purpose of the Corporation shall be:

   a. TO PROVIDE opportunities for very low, low and moderate income people to secure quality, affordable housing that is controlled by the residents on a long-term basis.

   b. TO PRESERVE the quality and affordability of housing for future very low, low and moderate income residents of the community.

   c. TO COMBAT community deterioration in neighborhoods by:

      - Promoting the development, rehabilitation, and maintenance of quality housing in these neighborhoods and economic opportunities for very low to moderate income residents of these neighborhoods;

      - Making land available for projects and activities that improve the quality of life in these neighborhoods;

      - Assisting residents of these neighborhoods in improving the safety and well-being of their community.

   d. TO PROTECT the natural environment and to promote the ecologically sound use of land and natural resources and the long-term health and safety of the community.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

1. Regular Membership. Subsequent to the first annual meeting, the Regular Members of the Corporation, with full voting rights, shall be:

   a. The Lessee Members, who shall be all persons who lease land or housing from the Corporation or who lease or own housing that is located on land leased by another entity from the Corporation.

September 16, 2011 revision
b. The General Members, who shall be all other persons, eighteen years of age or older, who have complied with the following requirements.

(1) Qualification as an Initial Member, as defined in the Articles of Incorporation, or attendance at one of the "orientation meetings" that shall be scheduled from time to time by the Board of Directors for the purpose of introducing prospective members to the purposes and methods of the Corporation.

(2) Submission of a Membership application including a signed statement of support for the purposes of the Corporation in a form to be determined by the Board of Directors.

(3) Payment of dues as established by the Board of Directors for the current calendar year.

2. Requirements for Continuing Regular Membership. To maintain Regular Membership beyond a person's first year of Regular Membership a person must either be a Lessee Member or:

Have attended at least one Meeting of the Membership or Board of Directors during the previous twenty-four months, or have shown good cause for nonattendance and continuing interest in the Corporation; and,

Have paid dues established for the current calendar year.

3. Membership Dues

a. Annual membership dues shall be assessed for each calendar year by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors. If no such action is taken to assess dues for a given year, the dues for that year shall be as established for the previous year.

b. Annual dues may be paid either in cash or by check.

4. Rights of Regular Members.

a. Every Regular Member shall have the right to participate in meetings of the Membership, to cast one vote on all matters properly put before the Membership for consideration, to participate in the election of the Board of Directors as provided by these Bylaws, to serve on the Board of Directors or on committees if chosen, to receive notices and minutes of Membership Meetings and Annual Reports of the Corporation.

b. The assent of the Regular Membership, in accordance with these Bylaws, shall be required before action may be taken on the dissolution of the Corporation.

5. Supporting Membership.
a. Any person who has paid the annual dues established for the current calendar year but who does not wish to become a Regular Member or has not met all of the requirements of Regular Membership shall be designated a Supporting Member of the Corporation.

b. Supporting Members shall have all of the rights of Regular Members except the right to nominate and participate in the election of the Board of Directors and the right to vote on matters put before the Regular Membership.

6. Membership Meetings.

a. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of every Membership Meeting shall be given to all Regular and Supporting Members and shall include an agenda for the meeting. Except as otherwise provided in Article VIII of these Bylaws, notice shall be mailed at least seven days prior to a meeting.

b. Annual Meetings. Subsequent to the First Annual Meeting, the Annual Meeting of the Membership, for reports to the Membership by the Board of Directors and Officers, the election of Directors, the assessment of dues, and the transaction of other business, shall be held in the fourth quarter of each year. The location and specific time of the Annual Meeting shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Notice of the Annual Meeting shall include a list of those persons nominated for the Board of Directors as provided in Article III of these Bylaws.

c. Regular Meetings. Regular Meetings may be scheduled by the Regular Membership at such times and places as they shall establish at the Annual Meeting.

d. Special Meetings. Special Membership Meetings may be called by the Board of Directors or by a written petition, addressed to the President of the Corporation, signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the Regular Membership. At a Special Meeting, only those matters stated on the agenda, as included in the notice of the meeting, may be acted upon by the Membership.

e. Open meetings. All Membership Meetings shall be open to any person.

f. Minutes. Minutes of all Membership Meetings shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Corporation or by another person designated by the Board of Directors. Minutes for every meeting shall be approved by the Regular Membership at the next Membership Meeting.

g. Quorum. A quorum at regular meetings shall consist of one third of the total Regular Membership, as determined by the Secretary of the Corporation. A quorum at the annual meeting shall consist of a majority of members who are Directors of the corporation.

h. Decision-Making. Whenever possible, decisions shall be made at Membership Meetings by the consensus of the Regular Members present, a quorum being assembled. In the event that consensus is not attained, a decision shall be made by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Regular Members present and voting, a quorum being assembled, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws. Before a vote is held on any motion, the exact language of the motion shall be recorded by the Secretary and read to the Membership, and all Members present shall have a reasonable opportunity to express their opinions on the proposition.

ARTICLE III: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. Number of Directors. Except for the initial Board named in the Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall consist of twelve (12) Directors.

2. Composition of the Board. There shall be three categories of Directors, each consisting of four Directors, or one third of the total Board. The three categories shall be "Lessee Representatives" representing Lessee Members, "General Representatives" representing General Members, and "Public Representatives" representing the interests of the general public.

3. Nomination of Directors. For all regular elections subsequent to the first Annual Meeting of the Membership, Directors shall be nominated as follows:

   a. Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors shall appoint a nominating committee at least 60 days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. The nominating committee shall consist of at least three Board members. At a minimum, there shall be a Board member elected from the Lessee representatives, a Board Member elected from the Regular Representatives, and a Board member elected from the Public Representatives serving on the nominating committee.

   b. Notice of elections. Not less than 60 days before a scheduled election, the Corporation shall mail to each Regular Member entitled to a vote, a first notice of the date of the election. Any Regular Member desiring to be considered by the nominating committee as a candidate for the board must give written notice to the Corporation not less than 20 days before a scheduled election. A Regular Member who needs assistance in casting the ballot for the reasons stated in F. S.§101.051 may obtain assistance in casting the ballot. The regular election shall occur on the date of the annual meeting.

   c. Lessee Representatives.

      (1) Lessee Members may recommend Lessee Representatives to the nominating committee from among themselves.

      (2) If, at the time the notice of the Annual Membership Meeting is to be sent out, the number of recommendations is less than the number of Lessee Representative seats to be filled, the nominating committee shall nominate enough candidates so that the total number of candidates is sufficient to fill the number of seats to be filled. To achieve this end, the Board may, at any time prior to the sending out of such notice, approve a list of candidates for Lessee representatives and may instruct the Secretary to draw from this list so as to name a sufficient number of candidates with the notice of the annual Meeting. In making such nominations, the Board shall select actual Lessees to the extent that they are available to serve on the Board of Directors. Otherwise the Board shall select persons who can reasonably be expected to represent the normal interests and concerns of Lessees.

d. General Representatives.

(1) General Members may recommend General Representatives to the nominating committee from among themselves.

(2) If, at the time the notice of the Annual Membership Meeting is to be sent out, the number of recommendations or General representative is less than the number of General Representative seats to be filled, the nominating committee shall nominate enough candidates so that the total number of candidates is sufficient to fill the number of seats to be filled. To achieve this end, the Board may, at any time prior to the sending out of such notice, approve a list of candidates for General Representatives and may instruct the Secretary to draw from this list so as to name a sufficient number of candidates with the notice of the annual Meeting.

e. Public Representatives. At least ten days prior to the Annual Meeting, the nominating committee shall make nominations for Public Representatives to the Board.

f. Notice of Nominations. A list of all persons nominated in each of the three categories shall be included with the notice of the Annual Meeting.

4. Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected by the Regular Members present and voting at the Annual Meeting, a quorum being assembled, in accordance with the following procedures.

a. A separate vote shall be taken for each of the three categories of Board representatives: (1) Lessee Representatives, (2) General Representatives, and (3) Public Representatives. If a person has been nominated in more than one category and is then elected in one category, his or her name shall be removed from the list of nominees in the remaining categories.

b. In each of the three categories, positions shall be filled by those candidates receiving the largest numbers of votes in the category, though such numbers may constitute less than a majority of the total votes cast in the category.

5. Vacancies.

a. Election to Fill Vacancies. If any Director vacates his or her term or is removed from the Board, the remaining Directors (though they may constitute less than a quorum) may elect a person to fill the vacancy, or may, by unanimous agreement, decide to leave the position vacant until the next Annual Meeting of the Membership, provided the Board still includes at least three Representatives in each category. Elections to fill vacancies shall be by a majority of the remaining Directors.

b. Qualifications of Replacements. Any person elected to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors must be one who can be reasonably expected to represent the interests of the constituents in the category (Lessee, General, or Public) in which the vacancy occurs.

c. Term of Replacements. Replacement Directors elected by the Board shall serve out the remaining term of the person who has vacated the position.

6. Low-Income Representation. In their actions regarding the nomination and election of directors and appointment of people to fill vacancies on the board of directors, the membership and the board of directors shall at all times ensure that at least one third of the Board is maintained for low-income community residents. "Low Income" shall mean those people whose household income has been computed in accordance with the State Housing Initiatives Partnership (SHIP) Program guidelines (as well as other applicable funding source guidelines) and meets the definition of "low income" under those guidelines.

7. Terms of Directors.

a. Terms of First Elected Directors. After the election of Directors at the first Annual Meeting, each Director shall be assigned, by mutual agreement or by lot, to a one-year or two-year term. In each of the three categories of Representatives, two Directors shall be assigned a one-year term and two shall be assigned a two-year term.

b. Terms of Successor Directors. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, each Director shall serve a full term of two years.

c. Commencement of Terms. The term of office of a regularly elected Director shall commence at the adjournment of the Annual Membership Meeting in which he or she is elected.
The term of office of a Director elected by the Board to fill a vacancy shall begin at the time of his or her acceptance of the position.

d. Re-election. No person shall serve as a Director for more than three consecutive elected terms. After a year's absence from the Board, however, a person who has served three consecutive elected terms may return to the Board, if reelected, and may serve up to three consecutive elected terms.

e. 2010 Election. At the annual meeting for 2010, one Director in the General Representative category shall be elected to a three-year term. When the three-year term expires, that seat will be elected for one one-year term Thereafter, the Director filling that seat will be elected to two-year terms.

September 16, 2011 revision 6
8. Resignation.

   a. Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. Unless otherwise specified, such resignation shall be effective upon the receipt of notice by the President.

   b. A Director shall be considered to have given notice of resignation and his or her position shall be declared vacant by the Board of Directors if he or she fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board with the exception of emergency meetings, unless good cause for absence and continuing interest in participation on the Board are recognized by the Board. When a Director has failed to attend three consecutive meetings, the President shall notify him or her in writing that, at the next regular Board meeting, his or her position will be declared vacant unless the Board determines that there has been good cause for the Director's absences and that the Director continues to be interested in participating on the Board. The notification by the President shall be mailed no later than seven days prior to the Board meeting at which the position may be declared vacant. At this meeting, the Director in question shall be given the opportunity to show good cause for absence from meetings and continuing interest in participating on the Board. The resignation of a Director who has missed three consecutive meetings shall not become effective until the Board has declared the position vacant as provided herein.

9. Removal of Directors. A Director of the Corporation may be removed for good cause by the regular members of the Corporation when such Director is judged to have acted in a manner seriously detrimental to the Corporation. However, before such removal can occur, the following procedure must be followed.

   a. Written charges specifying the conduct considered to be detrimental must be signed by at least three members of the Corporation and submitted to the President (or, if the President is the Director charged, to the Vice President). Any Regular Members of the Corporation may submit such charges.

   b. The President (or Vice President) shall deliver or mail a copy of the charges to the Director charged.

   c. A Special Committee consisting of three Regular Members of the Corporation shall be created to consider the charges. One member of the Committee shall be selected by the Board of Directors, but without the participation of the Director charged, within ten days following the delivery or mailing of the charges to the Director charged. In making its selection, the Board shall endeavor to select a person who will consider the charges without bias. No later than ten days following the Board's selection of the first member of the Committee, a second member may be selected by the Director charged. In the event that the Director charged fails to select a second member of the Committee within ten days, the Board may select a second member who, in the judgement of the Board, will consider the charges without bias. Within ten days following the selection of the second member of the Committee, the first and second members shall select a third member of the Committee. If the first and second members cannot agree upon a third member within this ten-day period, the Board shall select a third member.

d. The Special Committee shall hold a hearing, at which both the Director charged and the members who have filed charges may present evidence in the presence of the other. Following the hearing, the Committee shall prepare a written report of its findings and its recommendation for or against removal. The recommendation shall be based on a majority vote if consensus cannot be reached. The report shall contain a statement of how each member of the Committee has voted. The report shall be completed and submitted to the President of the Corporation no later than one month following the selection of the third member of the Committee.

e. If the Committee recommends removal of the Director, the recommendation shall be presented to the Regular Membership, which shall then have sole authority to decide the question of removal. A Membership meeting for this purpose shall be called by the President for a time no later than one month following the President's receipt of the Committee's recommendation for removal. Notice of this meeting shall include a complete copy of the Committee's report.

10. Meetings of the Board of Directors.

a. Notice of Meetings. Except as provided below for emergency meetings, notice of a Board meeting shall be mailed, delivered or electronically transmitted to all Directors at least seven days prior to the meeting. Notice of every meeting shall include an agenda for the meeting. Notice of every meeting shall also be posted. All meetings shall comply with the provisions of F.S. 286.011.

b. Waiver of Notice. Any Director may waive any notice required by these Bylaws. Any Director who has not received notice of a Board meeting but has attended that meeting shall be considered to have waived notice of that meeting, unless he or she requests that his or her protest be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

c. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors may be held immediately following the Annual Membership Meeting and must be held no later than six weeks following the Annual Membership Meeting.

d. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet no less often than once every two months, at such times and places as the Board may establish.

e. Special Meetings and Emergency Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President, by any three Directors, or by 10% of the Regular Members of the Corporation. Notice must be given as provided above, unless any three Directors determine that the matter at hand constitutes an emergency. When so determined, an Emergency Meeting may be called on one-day notice. Notice of Emergency Meetings, including an announcement of the agenda, shall be given by telephone or in person to all Directors. At any Special or Emergency Meeting of the Board, only those matters included in the announced agenda may be acted upon unless all of the Directors are present at the meeting and unanimously agree to take action on other matters.

11. Procedures for Meetings of the Board of Directors.

   a. Open Meetings. All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to any person except executive sessions as permitted by Chapter 286, Florida Statutes.

   b. Executive Session. All executive sessions shall be held in compliance with the terms and conditions as set forth in Chapter 286, Florida Statutes.

   c. Quorum. At any meeting of the Board, a quorum shall consist of a majority of the Board of Directors, provided that at least one representative from each of the three categories of representatives is present.

   d. Decision-Making. The Board shall attempt to reach unanimous agreement on all decisions. In the event that unanimous agreement cannot be achieved, a decision may be made by a majority of the Directors present and voting, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

   e. Minutes. Minutes of all Board meetings shall be recorded by the Secretary or by such other person as the Board may designate, and shall be approved by the Board at the next Board meeting. All minutes of Board meetings shall be kept on permanent record by the Corporation and shall be open for inspection by any Member of the Corporation or member of the public.

12. Duties of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall carry out the purposes of the Corporation, implement the decisions of the Regular Membership, and be responsible for the general management of the affairs of the Corporation in accordance with these Bylaws.
Specifically, the Board shall:

   a. Approve a written Annual Report to The Membership, and make this report available to all members. This report shall include a summary of the Corporation's activities during the previous year, the Corporation's most recent financial reports, and a list of all real estate held by the Corporation.

   b. Adopt an annual operating budget prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, and approve any expenditures not included in the budget.

   c. Select all officers of the Corporation.

September 16, 2011 revision
d. Supervise the activities of all officers, agents, and committees of the Corporation in the performance of their assigned duties and investigate any possible conflicts of interest within the Corporation.

e. Adopt and implement personnel policies providing for the hiring, supervision, and evaluation of employees.

f. Provide for the deposit of funds in accordance with Article IX of these Bylaws.

g. Determine by whom and in what manner deeds, leases, contracts, checks, drafts, endorsements, notes and other instruments shall be signed on behalf of the Corporation.

h. Acquire such parcels of land, with or without buildings and other improvements, through donation, purchase, or otherwise, as the Board shall determine that it is useful and prudent to acquire in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

i. Convey the right to use land, through leases or other limited conveyances, in accordance with the provisions of Articles V and VI of these Bylaws.

j. Convey ownership of housing and other improvements on the Corporation's land to qualified lessees, as possible, in accordance with the provisions of Articles V and VI of these Bylaws.

k. Exercise, as appropriate, the Corporation's option to repurchase (or arrange for the resale of) housing and other improvements belonging to ground lessees in accordance with the terms of the ground lease and Article VI of these Bylaws.

l. Develop the resources necessary for the operation of the Corporation and for the acquisition and development of land and housing.

m. Assure the sound management of the Corporation's finances.

13. Powers of the Board of Directors. In addition to the power to carry out the duties enumerated above, the Board of Directors shall have the power to:

a. Appoint and discharge advisors and consultants.

b. Create such committees as are necessary or desirable to further the purposes of the Corporation. (Any member of the Corporation may be appointed to any committee. No committee may take action on behalf of the Corporation except as authorized by the Board of Directors.)

c. Call special meetings of the membership.
d. Approve the borrowing and lending of money as necessary to further the purposes of the Corporation and in accordance with paragraph IX, 4 of these Bylaws.

e. Exercise all other powers necessary to conduct the affairs and further the purposes of the Corporation in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

14. Limitation on the Powers of the Board of Directors. Action taken by the Board of Directors on any motion for the dissolution of the Corporation shall not become effective unless and until such action is approved by the Regular Membership in accordance with these Bylaws.

15. Conflict of Interest. No member of the Board of Directors shall vote on any matter in which such Director or any parent, spouse, child, partner, employer or similar related business entity has a substantial interest in any property or business that would be substantially affected by such action.

ARTICLE IV: OFFICERS

1. Designation. The officers of the Corporation shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

2. Election. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, from among themselves, at the Annual Meeting of the Board. Any vacancies occurring in any of these offices shall be filled by the Board for the unexpired term.

3. Tenure. The officers shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting of the Board after their election, unless, before such time, they resign or are removed from their offices, or unless they resign or are removed from the Board of Directors. Any officer who ceases to be a member of the Board of Directors shall thereby cease to be an officer.

4. Removal from Office. The officers shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors and may be removed from office at any time by an affirmative vote of two thirds of the entire Board of Directors.

5. Duties of the President. The President shall:

a. Preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and the Membership when able to do so.

b. Consult with the other officers and the committees of the Corporation regarding the fulfillment of their duties.

c. Assure that an agenda is prepared for every meeting of the Membership and the Board of Directors.

September 16, 2011 revision
d. Give notice to any Director who has been absent from three consecutive regular meetings, as required by these Bylaws.

e. Call special meetings of the Membership or Board of Directors when petitioned to do so in accordance with these Bylaws.

f. Carry out the duties assigned to the President regarding the removal of a Director.

g. Perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may assign.

6. Duties of the Vice President. The Vice President shall:

a. Perform all duties of the President in the event that the President is absent or unable to perform these duties.

b. Perform those duties assigned to the President regarding the resignation or removal of a Director when the President is disqualified from performing these duties.

c. Assure that up-to-date copies of these Bylaws (incorporating any duly approved amendments) are maintained by the Corporation; answer all questions from the Board regarding these Bylaws; and assure that all actions of the Membership and Board of Directors comply with these Bylaws.

d. Assure that any and all committees established by the board of directors are constituted as the board has directed and meet as necessary and appropriate.

e. Perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may assign.

7. Duties of the Secretary. The Secretary shall:

a. Assure that a list of all Members and their mailing addresses is maintained by the Corporation.

b. Assure that proper notice of all meetings of the Membership and the Board of Directors is given.

c. Assure that motions and votes in meetings of the Membership and Board are accurately represented to those present and are accurately recorded in the minutes.

d. Assure that minutes of all meetings of the Membership and the Board of Directors are recorded and kept on permanent record.

e. Perform such other duties as the Board of Directors may assign.

September 16, 2011 revision
8. Duties of the Treasurer. The Treasurer shall oversee the finances of the Corporation. Specifically, the Treasurer shall:

   a. Assure that the financial records of the Corporation are maintained in accordance with sound accounting practices.

   b. Assure that funds of the Corporation are deposited in the name of the Corporation in accordance with these Bylaws.

   c. Assure that all deeds, title papers, leases, and other documents establishing the Corporation's interest in property and rights in particular matters are systematically and securely maintained.

   d. Assure that all money owed to the Corporation is duly collected and that all gifts of money or property to the Corporation are duly received.

   e. Assure the proper disbursement of such funds as the Board of Directors may order or authorize to be disbursed.

   f. Assure that accurate financial reports (including balance sheets and revenue and expense statements) are prepared and presented to the Board at the close of each quarter of each fiscal year.

   g. Assure that such reports and returns as may be required by various government agencies are prepared and filed in a timely manner.

   h. Assure that an annual operating budget is prepared and presented to the Board for its approval prior to the beginning of each fiscal year.

ARTICLE V: STEWARDSHIP OF LAND

1. Principles of Land Use. The Board of Directors shall oversee the use of land owned by the Corporation and shall convey the right to use such land so as to facilitate access to land and affordable housing by low and moderate income people. In so doing, the Board shall be guided by the following principles:

   a. The Board shall consider the needs of potential lessees and shall attempt to effect a just distribution of land use rights.

   b. The Board shall convey land use rights on terms that will preserve affordable access to land and housing for future low and moderate income residents of the community.

September 16, 2011 revision
c. The Board shall convey land use rights in a manner that will promote the long-term well-being of the community and the long-term health of the environment.

2. Encumbrance of Land. The decision to mortgage or otherwise encumber land owned by the Corporation shall require the approval of the Board of Directors and the consent of any parties to whom such land is leased.

3. Sale of Land. The sale of land does not conform with the philosophy and purposes of the Corporation. Accordingly, land shall not be sold except in extraordinary circumstances, and then only in accordance with the following guidelines.

   a. A parcel of land may be sold pursuant to a resolution adopted by an affirmative vote by at least two thirds of the entire Board of Directors at a regular or special Board meeting, provided that (i) the Corporation has owned the parcel for no more than sixty (60) days at the time the vote is taken, (ii) the parcel is not leased to any party, and (iii) the resolution states that the location or character of the parcel is determined to be such that the charitable purposes of the Corporation are best served by selling the land and applying the proceeds to the support of other activities serving those purposes.

   In all other circumstances a parcel of land may be sold only with:

   An affirmative vote by at least two thirds of the entire Board of Directors at a regular or special Board meeting, provided that written notice of such meeting has described the proposed sale and the reasons for the proposal and the written consent of any persons to whom the land in question is leased.

ARTICLE VI: OWNERSHIP OF HOUSING AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS LOCATED ON THE CORPORATION'S LAND, AND LIMITATIONS ON RESALE

1. Ownership of Housing and Improvements on the Corporation's Land. In accordance with the purposes of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall take appropriate measures to promote and facilitate the ownership of housing and other improvements on the Corporation's land by low and moderate income people. These measures may include, but are not limited to, provisions for the sale of housing to such people; provisions for financing the acquisition of housing by such people, including direct loans by the Corporation; and provision for grants or other subsidies that will lower the cost of housing for such people.

2. Preservation of Affordability. It is a purpose of the Corporation to preserve the affordability of housing and other improvements for low and moderate income people in the future. Accordingly, when land is leased for such purpose, the Board of Directors shall assure that as a condition of the lease, housing on the land may be resold only to the Corporation or to another low or moderate income person and only for a price limited by a "resale formula" as described in Section 3 below. However, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may choose, for reasons consistent with the charitable purposes of the Corporation, to lease certain parcels of land for uses that do not require continued affordability for low or moderate income people, and in such cases the resale restrictions described above shall not be required as a condition of the lease.

3. The Resale Formula. Whenever its purpose is to preserve affordability, the Corporation shall restrict the price that ground lessees may receive when they sell housing and other improvements located on the land that is leased to them by the Corporation. A policy establishing such restrictions in the form of a "resale formula" shall be adopted by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the following principles:

a. To the extent possible, the formula shall allow the seller to receive a price based on the value that the seller has actually invested in the property being sold.

b. To the extent possible, the formula shall limit the price of the property to an amount that will be affordable for other low and moderate income people at the time of the transfer of ownership.

4. Procedures for Adoption of the Resale Formula. The adoption of the resale formula shall require an affirmative vote by at least two thirds of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special Board meeting, provided that written notice of such meeting has set forth the proposed formula with an explanation thereof.

5. Procedures for Altering the Resale Formula. The consistent long-term application of a resale formula is essential to the purposes of the Corporation. Accordingly, the resale formula shall not be altered unless the Board of Directors determines that the current formula presents an obstacle to the achievement of the purposes of the Corporation. In such an event, the resale formula may be altered only by a two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII: AMENDMENT OF CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

The Certificate of Incorporation may be amended and these Bylaws may be amended or may be repealed and new Bylaws adopted only by an affirmative vote by two thirds of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special Board meeting, provided that written notice of such meeting has set forth the proposed amendment or replacement, with appropriate explanations thereof.

ARTICLE VIII: DISSOLUTION

A decision to dissolve the Corporation and to distribute the Corporation's assets in a particular manner in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation shall require:

September 16, 2011 revision
1. An affirmative vote by two thirds of the entire Board of Directors at any regular or special Board meeting, provided that written notice of such meeting has included a full description of the plan of dissolution; and

2. An affirmative vote by two thirds of the Regular Members present at a regular or special Membership meeting, a quorum being assembled, provided that written notice of such meeting, including a full description of the proposed plan of dissolution, has been given to all Members of the Corporation no later than three weeks prior to the meeting.

ARTICLE IX: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall begin on January 1 of each year, and shall end on December 31 of each year.

2. Deposit of Funds. All funds of the Corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited in such banks, trust companies, or other reliable depositories as the Board of Directors from time to time may determine.

3. Checks, etc. All checks, drafts, endorsements, notes and evidences of indebtedness of the Corporation shall be signed by such officers or agents of the Corporation and in such manner as the Board of Directors from time to time may determine. Endorsements for deposits to the credit of the Corporation shall be made in such manner as the Board of Directors from time to time may determine.

4. Loans. No loans or advances shall be contracted on behalf of the Corporation, and no note or other evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name, except as authorized by the Board of Directors. Any such authorization shall relate to specific transactions.

5. Contracts. Any officer or agent of the Corporation specifically authorized by the Board of Directors may, on behalf of the Corporation, enter into those contracts or execute and deliver those instruments that are specifically authorized by the Board of Directors. Without the express and specific authorization of the Board of Directors, no officer or other agent of the Corporation may enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of the Corporation.

6. Indemnification. Every Director and every officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by this Corporation to the full extent permitted by law against all expenses and liabilities, including attorney's fees in trial and appellate proceedings or any settlement thereof, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a Director or officer of this Corporation, whether or not he is a Director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, unless the liability of the Director or officer in question is adjudged by decision of a court of competent jurisdiction to result from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such officer or Director in the performance of his duties; provided, however, that in the event of a settlement, the indemnification herein shall apply only when the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interest of this Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and shall not be exclusive of all other rights to which said Director or officer may be entitled.

7. Compliance With Florida Public Records Law. The Corporation shall comply with the requirements of Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, in maintaining records of the Corporation.

ARTICLE X: INITIAL MEMBERSHIP AND BOARD, ADOPTION OF BYLAWS, FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

1. Initial Membership. The Initial Members empowered to vote at the first annual meeting shall be those persons 18 years of age or older who have attended at least one of the organizational meetings held between March 30, 2005, and the date of incorporation, as recorded in the minutes of these meetings.

2. Initial Board of Directors. The Initial Board of Directors shall be as stated in the Certificate of Incorporation. The Initial Board, after approving these Bylaws, shall call the first Annual Meeting of the Membership, and shall serve until the first elected Board of Directors has been seated upon the completion of the First Annual Meeting.

3. Adoption of Bylaws. Adoption of these Bylaws as the Bylaws of the Corporation shall require approval by a majority of the Initial Board of Directors prior to the First Annual Meeting.

4. Nomination of Directors to Be Elected at First Annual Meeting. In consultation with the Initial Members, the Initial Board of Directors shall nominate a slate of twelve candidates, and shall designate four of these candidates as candidates for "Lessee Representatives," four as candidates for "General Representatives," and four as candidates for "Public Representatives." Additional nominations for any of the three categories of representatives may be made by any Initial Member from the floor at the First Annual Meeting.

5. First Annual Meeting. The First Annual Meeting of the Membership, for the election of Directors, the assessment of membership dues, and the transaction of other business, shall be held in fourth (4th) quarter of the fiscal year. The location and specific time of the First Annual Meeting shall be determined by the Initial Board of Directors. Notice of the First Annual meeting shall be mailed to all Initial Members at least seven days prior to the Meeting and shall include a list of those persons nominated for the Board of Directors in accordance with Paragraph 4 above. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the election of Directors and other business of the First Annual Meeting shall be conducted in accordance with Articles II and III of these Bylaws.
